

Zusatzstudium Intersectionality Studies. Lecture Series: Intersectionality Studies and Diversity Competence

WS2020/21 Every Thursday 18:00-20:00

PROGRAMME

5. Nov Dr. des. Xin Li (Bayreuth University)
Intersectionality: an Introduction

12. Nov Prof. Dr. Dianne Shober (Biola University)
Silencing the Abuser: Marriage and Death in African Women's Writing

19. Nov Prof. Dr. Dianne Shober (Biola University)
South Africa's Literary History – Living Footprints

26. Nov Prof. Dr. Santiago Fernández (University of Alcalá)
Introduction to Postcolonial Studies

3. Dec Prof. Dr. Santiago Fernández (University of Alcalá)
Intersections of Class, Gender and Race in the Postcolonial Bildungsroman

10. Dec Dr. S. N. Nyeck (Emory School of Law)
Prolongation or Queer Recesses of the Heart

17. Dec Dr. Christine Vogt-William (Bayreuth University)
Intersectional Readings of Twinned Bodies and Spaces in Contemporary Anglophone Canadian Literature

7. Jan Shirin Assa (Bayreuth University)
Intersectionality in Diaspora

14. Jan Dr. Katharina Fink (Bayreuth University)
Exclusions, Unite! Why It Is Crucial to Think Inclusion with an Intersectional Lens

21. Jan Prof. Dr. Kristin Skottki (Bayreuth University)
Medieval Europe and the Challenge of (religious) Diversity

28. Jan Dr. Mario Faust-Scalisi (Berlin, Germany)
Are you disabled? - Understanding 'Disability' and Ableism

4. Feb Dr. Tanu Biswas (Bayreuth University)
Childism: A Minor Dimension of Major Significance

11. Feb Dr. Carolin Herzog (Bayreuth University)
Centre et Périphérie: Intersectionality and Francophone African Literature

18. Feb Prof. Dr. Maisha Auma (University for Applied Sciences, Magdeburg- Stendal)
Who Needs Feminism? Who Needs Intersectionality?

25. Feb Written Exam