Sac la Mort

🕒 77 min 📺 Drama 🌐 France (La Réunion) 🏠 2017

In Reunion Island, devastated by the murder of his brother, Patrice is convinced by a friend that he accidentally stepped on a bag of death. SAC LA MORT tells the story of Patrice and his friends in Reunionese Creole, a tumultuous story in homage to the Cafres, the descendants of enslaved persons on La Réunion, played by exceptionally talented actors from Reunion.

Maudit!

🕒 75 min 📺 Drama 🌐 France (La Réunion) 🏠 2020

The island of Reunion has known slavery and indentureship for centuries. MAUDIT ("cursed") is the allegorical account of the repression of this history, the blurred, drunken, violent and complex song of diversity challenged by the weight of the past. The character of Alix, whom we follow throughout MAUDIT! extends this story of blood and death: he too is destabilized by his demons. The ghosts he sees are maroons, the slaves who fled into the mountains.

Mayfair

🕒 92 min 📺 Drama 🌐 South Africa 🏠 2018

As an international aid worker, Zaid lives as far away as possible from his father, Aziz Randera, a successful import-exporter, and occasional money launderer and loan shark. But when he is fired from his job in a refugee camp for ignoring the rules and actually doing good rather than shuffling papers, Zaid returns to South Africa and to MAYFAIR, an Indian Muslim enclave in Johannesburg, for the first time in years. At home, everything has changed.

Binti

🕒 98 min 📺 Drama 🌐 Tanzania 🏠 2021

BINTI („daughter“, „young woman“) is the last film by Tanzanian filmmaker Seko Shante. It tells the story of four women with very different careers, aspirations and social backgrounds in Dar es Salaam - and also from their different perspectives, which are slowly interwoven in the film. Featuring Seko Shante, internationally renowned filmmaker, and produced by sisters Angela and Ailinda Ruhinda, BINTI not only presents a kaleidoscope of women's lives in East Africa, but was also made by women alone.
