

Options for Publications with the ACCs and other partner institutions

The Cluster encourages publications with our international partners. The following is an open list, more suggestions are welcome.

1 ACC

1.1 ACC Rhodes

The following scholars at ACC Rhodes are currently Journal Editors:

1.1.1 Lynda Spencer – Literature Scholar – Eastern African Literary and Cultural Studies

1.1.2 Lee Watkins – Music and Musicology - African Music: Journal of the International Library of African Music

1.1.3 Ruth Simbao – ART - African Arts journal published by the MIT Press

1.1.4 Heila Lotz-Sisitka - Environmental Education - Learning, Culture and Social Interaction Journal.

1.2 ACC Ouagadougou

a short list of the journals currently edited in Ouagadougou.

- all Bilingual (French and English)
- in French only: “Annales”, “the “Cahiers du CERLESH”, “Sciences et Techniques”,
The “Presses Universitaires de Ouagadougou” is the Publishing House at the University.

1.2.1 LES CAHIERS DU CERLESH

Unité de Formation et de recherche/Sciences Humaines - Unité de Formation et de recherche Lettres Arts et Communication de l’Université Joseph Ki-Zerbo, Presses Universitaires de Ouagadougou. The Director is Prof. Bernard Kaboré : kabernardo2@yahoo.fr

1.2.2 Les ANNALES, série A

(Lettres, Sciences Humaines, Arts et Communication) Université de Ouagadougou, Presses Universitaires de Ouagadougou (PUO). Prof. Kam : puo1@gmail.com

1.2.3 SCIENCES ET TECHNIQUES, série A ( Lettres, Sciences Humaines, Arts et Communication), Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique et Technologique du Burkina Faso. The director is Dr Martial Halpougou : martialtadawel@gmail.com

1.2.4 LA REVUE DU CAMES

(Nouvelle Série, Sciences Humaines), Conseil Africain et Malgache pour l’Enseignement Supérieur (voir : <http://publication.lecames.org>)

1.3 ACC Lagos

1.3.1 The African and Diaspora Discourse

is based in the Institute. It is an annual Multidisciplinary peer reviewed journal of African Studies, accepting well researched articles in both English and French.

Currently, Muyiwa Falaiye Editor-in-Chief. The editor is Dr. Kayode Eesuola. He is also the contact person. (oesuola@unilag.edu.ng)

1.3.2 Lagos Notes and Records

is also a respected multidisciplinary research outlet. It is the official research outlet of the Faculty of Arts, University of Lagos. It accepts well researched papers in both English and French. The Editor -in-Chief is Prof. Funke Adeboye (funks29adeboye@yahoo.co.uk)

1.4 ACC Moi University (Eldoret)

Moi University Press publishes books by individual researchers and is therefore a critical tool for dissemination of research results. Individual schools also run journals published annually. The school of Arts and Social Sciences publishes two journals, namely

1.4.1 Maarifa: Journal of Humanities and Social Sciences

<https://www.worldcat.org/title/maarifa-a-journal-of-humanities-and-social-sciences/oclc/681453635>

1.4.2 Kiswahili Studies journal, Jaarida la Mwanga wa Lugha.

<https://www.worldcat.org/title/mwanga-wa-lugha/oclc/1007135491>

These journals feature peer-reviewed papers and conference presentations especially in the area of African studies.

2 Network / international partner Journals

2.1 Center for Afro-Oriental Studies at the Federal University of Bahia

Contact person: Livio Sansone sansone@ufba.br

2.1.1 A Afro-Ásia é a Revista do Centro de Estudos Afro-Orientais (CEAO)

from the Federal University of Bahia. Its first publication was in 1965 and initially the proposal was to disseminate research and studies carried out by the Center for Afro-Oriental Studies at the Federal University of Bahia (Salvador, Brazil), dedicated to the African continent as well as the Asian. currently 59 issues are published and the next issue will be a commemorative issue of the 60th anniversary of the Center for Afro-Asian Studies, published this year 2020.

2.1.2 The Afro-Asia Magazine

publishes articles and reviews resulting from studies and research about the African, Asian populations and their descendants in Brazil and in the world. Issues related to the diaspora, economics of transatlantic trafficking, contemporary Africa, Asian studies, linguistic studies referring to the Afro-Asian world. This is the first publication, of this nature, existing in Brazil and Latin America.

With a prestigious editorial board, formed by researchers in the field of ethnic and African studies, as well as Asian studies in universities in the countries of Africa, USA, Brazil, Latin America; peer-reviewed. The magazine is published every six months and offers free and immediate access to its content,

Language: Unpublished articles written in English, French or Spanish can be sent for evaluation in the original language, but, if approved, they must be translated into Portuguese on the author's account.

Equipe Editorial

- Fábio Baqueiro Figueiredo, Universidade da Integração Internacional da Lusofonia Afro-Brasileira / Brasil
- Jamile Borges da Silva, Iacy Maia Mata, João José Reis ,Regina Helena Cabral Mattos Universidade Federal da Bahia, Brasil
- , Universidade Federal da Bahia

INDEX

Afro-Asia is indexed and evaluated in Scielo, redalyc, CLASE, Latindex and Capes / Qualis ISSN 0002-0591

2.2 Indiana University

The African Studies Program edits Africa Today, a peer-reviewed, quarterly journal published by Indiana University Press. It often has special issues with guest editors. See: <http://www.iupress.indiana.edu/pages.php?pID=71&CDpath=4> .

Indiana University Press publishes books and anthologies in African Studies. They have established series, such as African Expressive Cultures. IUPress sometimes partners with other academic publishers, such as James Currey and others in Africa. For current African Studies books, see: http://www.iupress.indiana.edu/index.php?cPath=1037_6094&CDpath=3

The National African Languages Resource Center based at Indiana University publishes African language texts. For current texts, see: <https://nalrc.indiana.edu/resources/books-media/index.html>.

2.3 Bordeaux Sciences Po

Publiée par l'association des chercheurs de Politique Africaine (ACPA) aux éditions Karthala, Politique Africaine est une revue pluridisciplinaire d'analyse du politique en Afrique. Créée en 1980 en rupture avec les approches dominantes des études africaines, elle s'est imposée en France et à l'étranger, comme une publication de référence.

Directrice de publication : Sandrine Perrot (Sciences Po, Ceri) / Rédacteurs en chef : Vincent Bonecase (CNRS) et Julien Brachet (IRD)M Les derniers numéros et les archives de la revue sont disponibles sur le carnet de la revue : <http://polaf.hypotheses.org/> et sur Cairn : <http://www.cairn.info/revue-politique-africaine.htm>

International Political Research on Spaces Stemming from Portuguese Colonization and History

<http://www.lusotopie.sciencespobordeaux.fr/sommaire.html>

Afrilex se situe dans la perspective d'une collaboration avec les universitaires et les praticiens du droit intéressés par les droits africains. À ce titre, elle est non pas une concurrente des revues existantes sur le continent africain, mais un complément à tout ce qui existe déjà dans le cadre de la promotion et de la diffusion de la recherche sur le droit et les questions juridiques en Afrique.

Études Littéraires Africaines (ELA : <http://www.apela.fr/la-revue/lequipe/>) une revue semestrielle dirigée par Pierre Halen (Université de Lorraine : pierre.halen@univ-lorraine.fr). Au sein du comité de rédaction, Maëline Le Lay (LAM/CNRS) est responsable de la revue des livres. Disponible sur <http://www.erudit.org/revue/ela/2014/v/n37/index.html>

2.4 Institute of African Studies (IAS) at Hankuk University of Foreign Studies (HUFS)

If you have research papers besides the ones you presented at UCT, please consider our Asian Journal of African Studies (AJAS) as a publication outlet. The papers presented in the conference at UCT would be better to be published as a special issue of a journal or a book with UCT. Information for AJAS submission is as follows:

Call for papers The Institute of African Studies (IAS) at Hankuk University of Foreign Studies (HUFS) welcomes submission of research papers, either theoretical or empirical, in the fields of humanities, social sciences, and development studies to be published with the Asian Journal of African Studies (AJAS). Specific areas of the research could range from African history, languages and literature, politics, economics, sociology, culture to anthropology among many others.

AJAS is a peer-reviewed journal published in English twice a year, in February and August. Please, send us your manuscripts to ajas.hufs@gmail.com.

Kim, Eun Kyung, Assistant Professor (Ph.D. in Political Science) Institute of African Studies, Hankuk University of Foreign Studies (HUFS), Korea

2.5 Kyoto University, Japan

Center for African Area Studies, Kyoto University, is periodically (quarterly) publishing African Study Monographs: <https://www.africa.kyoto-u.ac.jp/asm/index.html>

Motoki Takahashi

Editor-in-Chief; African Studies Monographs

2.6 New Dehli, India

three journals (SCOPUS journals): online as well as print version. Two of them are published by Taylor and Francis and one by Sage publications. All three are biannual.

co editions are possible, also inclusion in editorial board.

Special issues are possible but have to be negotiated with publisher.

Journals:

1. Africa Review (Routledge, London) It includes research paper from from all disciplines so long they are covering Africa. Theoretical, historical, empirical works are welcome

2. Insight on Africa: A journal of contemporary African Affairs (Sage Publication). It covers International relations, political science, economics, security, sociology and other social science works on Africa preferably on contemporary issues.

3. Diaspora Studies (Routledge, London). It covers social sciences works on Diaspora studies, including on African diasporas. Its focus is diasporic networks and connectivities.

Book series

1. Africa's Global Engagement: Perspectives from Emerging Countries. (Palgrave, Macmillan, Nature-Springer)

3 Further Ideas, other Publication

Suggestion from UCT University of Cape Town:

3.1 African Humanities Series <https://www.nisc.co.za/ahs>

NISC Partnerships

Started in 2008, the African Humanities Program (AHP) is an initiative of the American Council of Learned Societies financially supported by the Carnegie Corporation of New York. The AHP seeks to reinvigorate the humanities in Africa through fellowship competitions and related activities in Ghana, Nigeria, South Africa, Tanzania, and Uganda. NISC publishes the African Humanities Series of books in collaboration with the AHP

3.2 African Journals OnLine

is an impressive aggregation of African research output. In recognition that African-published research papers have been underutilised, undervalued and undercited in the international and African research arenas, AJOL offers a hosting portal to quality, peer-reviewed journals published on the continent. They provide online access, which is mostly free, to the African research community. NISC is pleased to be a participant in this worthwhile initiative.

UNISA Press is the largest university press in South Africa, publishing a number of local scholarly journals, primarily in the social sciences, arts and humanities disciplines. A number of these titles are co-published by the Press with Taylor & Francis. NISC in turn provides a full subscription and distribution service for UNISA Press journals that includes shipping print copies to subscribers in South Africa and elsewhere on the continent.