City Tour in English language: May to October Saturday and Sunda Opernstraße 22, 95444 Bayre 09 21 / 8 85-88, Fax 09 21 / 8 85-7!

Start your tour at the tourist information located on Opernstraße 22. The Wagner bench 1) in front of the tourist information's entrance invites you to take a souvenir photograph with Richard Wagner himself! Only a few metres away on the other side of the street is the

Not only was this opera house labelled a UNESCO World Heritage site in 2012 but it is also one of Europe's most beautiful Baroque theatres, still today it bears testimony to the life and influence of Margravine Wilhelmine. An all-sense encompassing multimedia presentation will guide you through the attractive world of Wilhemine's Baroque opera house which inspires the muse and allows the arts to come to life. Through the interaction of architecture, painting, music and drama visitors will experience how this extraordinary monument of Baroque festival culture developed. Next you should stroll along the Richard-Wagner-Straße towards "Haus Wahnfried" (3). This is the former residential house of Richard Wagner that served as

The corner house was home to Bayreuth's first university which was founded in 1742. Now turn off towards town and in to the "Friedrichstraße" that was created in 1730 and is full of splendid townhouses and noble residences. Your route will lead you past the Steingraeber Piano manufactory 7 that used to be responsible for tuning Richard Wagner's pianos.

Opposite is the former last residence of Jean Paul (8). The poet Jean Paul was the first professional poet of his time. His publications were highly circulated and even though his literary compositions are not easy to read for the contemporary reader he is still highly admired and adored.

Next, on the left side of the street and through the Steingraeber passage you will arrive at Richard Wagners first Bayreuth residence in the "Dammallee 7" 9 Wagner began living in this city apart-
