

African Law Week

17th - 20th November 2021

Wednesday, 17th November

10 a.m.

"Usama Socialism: Towards Cohering Tradition and Modernity"
by Dr. Serawit Debele & Dr. Semeneh Asfaw
(Iwalewa House)

3 p.m.

"Religion, Law and Customary Legal Practices in Africa"
by Prof. Hassan Ndzovu & Cecilia Ngaiza
(Iwalewa House)

Thursday, 18th November

8.30 a.m.

Colloquium "The continuous search for coherence in Africa's plural legal systems"
Day 1 by Prof. Lea Mwambene with contribution of Dr. Eddy Wifa, Dr. Robert Anima and Prof. Luke Mason (Iwalewa House) **

6.30 p.m.

"Legitimacy, Public International Law and Intractable Problems"
Inaugural Speech by Prof. Thoko Kaime
(H 24, RW I, University of Bayreuth) *

Get together afterwards

Friday, 19th November

8.30 a.m.

Colloquium "The continuous search for coherence in Africa's plural legal systems"
Day 2 by Prof. Anthony Diala with contribution of Elizabeth Bakibinga
(Iwalewa House) **

3.15 - 7 p.m.

Conference "The continuous search for coherence in Africa's plural legal systems" (Iwalewa House) *

Get together afterwards