

Preliminary program

Monday, 4 April

9:00-9:30 Registration

9:30-9:45 Welcome address: Prof Kenneth Matengu UNAM VC

9:45-10:30 Opening talk: CBNRM, Michael Bollig/Selma Lendelvo (tbd)

10:30-11:00 Reflection by John Kasaona

11:00-11:30 Coffee/Tea break

(1) Mechanisms of redistribution of benefits and revenue – Michael Bollig

11:30-12:00 Conceptualising benefits in community-based conservation: The need for transparency - Gladman Thondhlana

12:00-12:30 Repositioning CBNRM within a Whole-System Framework: Mukungule Community Conservancy, linking Local Learning, CBNRM and Business Literacy – Clever Musonda

12:30-13:30 Lunch

13:30-14:00 CBNRM – A controversy on socio-economic livelihoods and a treat to sustainable conservation in Noth-Western Botswana – Satau Gakemotho

14:00-14:30 Developing Community Conservancies and ICCAs in Zambia: A Whole-System Methodology – Hammerskjoeld Simwinga

14:30-15:00 The politics of CBNRM in Zambia – Rodgers Lubilo

15:00-15:30 Coffee/Tea break

15:30-16:00 Navigating through the storm: Conservancies as local institutions for regional resilience in Zambezi, Namibia – Linus Kalvelage

16:00-16:30 Conclusions from topic 1- Michael Bollig

Tuesday, 5 April

(2) Power, institutions and community – Alfons Mosimane (tbc)

9:00-9:30 Rebuilding community capitals: Does it take a Village – Brian Child

9:30-10:00 Addressing the complexity of reconciling Conservation and People's livelihoods: reflecting (challenges, opportunities and pitfalls) from an experiential case – Nicia Giva

10:00-10:30 Surviving Crises: Community Conservation in Namibia as a resilient idea – Richard Kiaka

10:30-11:00 Coffee/tea break

(3) The struggle for claims, rights and resources – Nicoli Natrass

11:00-11:30 Rethinking Community Based Natural Resource Management in Western Botswana – Robert Hitchcock

11:30-12:00 Learning with nonviolent communication to unpack human-wildlife governance systems to promote human-wildlife coexistence – Ruth Kansky

12:00-12:30 Right-Based Fisheries Co-management as a Solution to Sustainable Small-Scale Fisheries in Africa – Mafaniso Hara (online)

12:30-13:30 Lunch

13:30-14:00 Litigating the rights of Namibia's indigenous peoples' over land and natural resources – challenges and opportunities - Willem Odendaal

14:00-14:30 Conclusions from topics 2 and 3 Alfons Mosimane (tbc)/Nicoli Natrass

(4) Climate change, ecology and environmental implications – Cyrus Samimi

14:30-15:00 Mainstreaming Community Based Natural Resource Management in policies and institutional frameworks for climate change management: perspectives from the Great Limpopo trans-frontier conservation area, Zimbabwe – Olga Kufpika

15:00-15:30 Assessing the performance of a community-based natural resources management programme in Zimbabwe – Steven Matema

15:30-16:00 Surviving CBNRM- related constrictions on food security among frontier communities – Ottie Luzibo

16:00-16:15 Conclusions from topic 4 – Cyrus Samimi

16:15-16:45 Coffee/tea break

World Cafés

16:45-17:00 World Café Introduction

Each Café will have two hosts, one non-academic and one academic (hosts tbd)

Café 1: Can Community based conservation tackle challenges in rural Africa?

Café 2: Can past and present environmental injustices be addressed by community-based conservation?

Café 3: Beyond commodification: Exploring venues for convivial livelihoods beyond the market

Café 4: Can CBNRM address problems of environmental change?

Wednesday, 6 April

9:00-9:30 Visit Café 1

9:30-10:00 Visit Café 2

10:00-10:30 Visit Café 3

10:30-11:00 Visit Café 4

11:00-11:30 Coffee/Tea Break

Reflection on the World Cafés

11:30-11:45 Café 1

11:45-12:00 Café 2

12:00-12:15 Café 3

12:15-12:30 Café 4

12:30-12:45 Café Synthesis

12 :45-13 :15 Coffee/Tea Break

13:15-13:30 Final Discussion – Michael Bollig

13:30-13:45 Closing remarks – Alfons Mosimane & Cyrus Samimi